

Blueberry

Once upon a time in Sparkle Town, there lived a unicorn called Rainbow. Rainbow loved to sparkle her horn with her fairy friend called Blueberry and Rainbow also loved her sister, with all her heart.

One day, Rainbow went off to sparkle her horn. As it was a hot, sunny day, Rainbow left Blueberry home to look after her sister.

As Rainbow's sister was sleeping Blueberry heard a noise and saw a witch creeping towards Rainbow's sister. The witch and Blueberry had a fight. The witch was stronger than Blueberry and cast a spell on her to make her blind but Blueberry was determined to protect Rainbow's sister.

Later that night Rainbow came home and opened the door to see the furniture all burnt and strands of her sister's rainbow tail on the floor.

Rainbow felt Blueberry's burnt wand tap her hand and saw black soot on her face. Rainbow thought Blueberry had killed her sister, so she stabbed her with her horn.

Suddenly Rainbow heard neighing from under some hay and looked and saw her sister safe and a dead witch next to her.

She knew Blueberry had protected her sister. Rainbow was broken hearted.

She had a fairy ring made in the forest to remember her by. That place is still there for you to see today, called Blueberry Forest.
